

The Medway Historical Society

MEDWAY, MASSACHUSETTS

Est. 1902

The Medway Historical Society fills an important role in preserving the history of Medway. As a private, non-profit organization, Medway Historical relies on grants, membership fees, fundraising events, and private donations to maintain its modest building and extensive collection of artifacts pertinent to the history of Medway

As an all volunteer, 501c3 we are only limited by our resources. Check out the enclosed newsletter. If you have a passion for history then please consider becoming an active member and you will make new friends with common interests.

With a membership or donation of any amount, you will receive our quarterly printed newsletter. Your dollars go toward printing and mailing costs and support of our operational expenses.

Thank you for your generosity!
